It is with deep sorrow that we inform you of the passing of Mario J. Molina, who died today in his house in Mexico City.

His wife, sons, and brothers thank all the thoughts and prayers received during these difficult moments.

Dr. Molina is an example to the world, he dedicated his life to research and working in favor of protecting our environment. He will always be remembered with enormous pride and gratitude.

-o-o-o-o-o-